

NSPA SOCIAL MEDIA CODE OF CONDUCT

The Nova Scotia Physiotherapy Association (NSPA) social media accounts are owned by the NSPA. This code of conduct was developed for the NSPA for the purposes of managing social media accounts. This code of conduct does not supersede any of Facebook's, Twitter's or Instagram's terms and conditions but is applicable in addition to any of those terms and conditions. This page is private, not public.

The NS Physiotherapy Association's social media accounts are meant to be a positive environment for the online community to discuss health and wellness. We encourage our community to respect one another and our posting guidelines.

The NS Physiotherapy Association reserves the right to remove links to outside sources, as well as postings and photos that:

1. Are libelous, profane, defamatory, disparaging, hateful, harassing, threatening, obscene or otherwise offensive to public morality;
2. Violate others copyright, moral right or intellectual property;
3. Condone or promote illegal activity;
4. Are fraudulent, deceptive or misleading;
5. Are otherwise sexual or offensive graphically or in tone;
6. Contain spam or are intended to cause technical disruptions to this page;
7. Are off topic; or
8. Violate any local, provincial, state, federal, and/or international laws or regulations.

The NS Physiotherapy Association strongly encourages followers of our social media accounts to respect fellow community members and to follow Facebook's, Twitter's, and Instagram's terms and policies. Anyone repeatedly posting material that falls into the above categories may be removed and banned from participating in our social media pages.
